

Transition to Higher Education: Support Services for Students with Disabilities

This one-day training is sponsored by the Missouri Association for Higher Education and Disability (MO-AHEAD) and arrangements can be made to bring it to your area. Training Goal: Participants will be able to identify transition to college issues facing students with disabilities and will be equipped with strategies to prepare students for their transition. Specific topics to be covered include:

- Transition difficulties faced by students with disabilities
  - Differences between high school and college disability services
  - Accommodations provided at colleges and universities
  - Comparison of Legal Requirements between high school and college
  - Ideas for educators to promote readiness for postsecondary education
  - The importance of self-determination and self advocacy
  - Documentation of a disability requirements
  - The Missouri College Guidebook and other transition materials
- Who Should Attend:
- Administrators
  - Special Educators
  - Counselors

MO AHEAD will provide the following at no charge to the host or participants: • Speakers • Marketing materials • Program • Certificates

HOST will be responsible for the following: • Registration • Advertisement • Site arrangements • Technology – provision and set up • Snacks/food (Optional) • Name Tags • Speaker's hotel and travel costs • Printing of training handouts • Optional: Copy of the Missouri College Guidebook. This presentation is a product of the cooperative effort of several members of MO AHEAD from universities, community colleges, and secondary education. It has been presented statewide and nationally with acclaims from all audiences.

Contact:

Barbara Hammer
Director, Office of Disability Services
University of Missouri
S5 Memorial Union
Columbia, MO 65211
573.882.4696